WILLIAM PICKERING
A land surveyor in England prior to his coming to Illinois in the year 1821.
March 9, 1824 he married Flower's eldest daughter, Martha.
He is frequently mentioned in accounts of the negotiations between the HARMONIST and ROBERT OWEN.
Entered in Donald Macdonald's Diary on Feb. 18, 1825 is this note— "MR. RAPP gave us a ground plan of HARMONY copied from MR. PICKERING'S by a young man who assisted him."
